

Outcome Links

Strong Sense of Identity

- Help children develop respect and care for their place

Connected With and Contribute to Their World

- Help children understand the world in which they live.
- Increase awareness of human impacts on living things

Strong Sense of Well Being

- Engage children in how to be safe in their environment

Confident and Involved Learners

- Develop children's curiosity by investigation and experimentation

Effective Communicators

- Increase understanding of symbols and patterns by using scientific tools

Contact Us

Mobile: 0458 231 512

Phone: 07 5476 4777

Email:

info@ecollaboration.org.au

Website:

www.ecollaboration.org.au/

Address:

37 Coronation Ave, Nambour Qld 4560

Find us on:

Early Learning Eco-Classes

Identity
Connection
Well Being Involved Learners

Outcome linked and customised classroom workshops, field trips and professional development opportunities conducted by environmental scientists and educators with over 30 years combined experience.

'It was a terrific learning experience for all involved and we were fortunate and grateful to be accompanied by very experienced people in their fields of expertise' Local teacher

Engagement Activities

- Excursions, Incursions and Professional Development
- Water bug activities using a microscope
- Catchment care
- Basic mapping
- Water cycle and Sampling
- Animal and plant life cycles
- Renewable & non-renewable resources

Engagement Activities

- Animal and plant adaptations
- Food chains
- Understanding local plants and animals
- Composting
- Worm farms
- Recycling
- Craft activities with reused and natural materials
- Team games
- Discovering the local biodiversity in your yard