

We provide educational opportunities, expert advice and project management to develop and restore areas of school grounds for local biodiversity.

Biodiversity maintains the critical ecosystem processes that support life. Healthy, functioning ecosystems are necessary to maintain and regulate the atmosphere, climate, fresh water, soil formation, cycling of nutrients and disposal of wastes.